*"Find the door of your heart, you will discover it is the door to the kingdom of God"
(John Chrysostom)*

" We welcome you, Door to the Sacred.

You stand at the door of our hearts and offer us the joy of your constant companionship. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and offer us merciful forgiveness for our failings. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and offer us the ability to welcome more of our authentic self. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and offer us inherent wisdom to guide our way. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and offer us strength to walk with our struggles. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and offer us unconditional love. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and offer us the gift of mystery. . .

You stand at the door of our heart and call us to go inward to the unknown and the unnamed, to seek our home in you. . ." (Joyce Rupp)

Come - stand at the sacred door of your soul!
